Halloween

JI © Aduis

Listen to the rhyme and fill in the gaps. Then read the rhyme in two groups. You can also act out the rhyme in a role-play game.

At the witch's house:

| Children:       | Trick or treat?                         |

|                 | We don't want any sweets.        |
| Witch:          | But what do you want?                   |
|                 | But what do you want?                   |
| Children:       | We want some money.              |
|                 | We want some money.              |
| Witch:          | You can't have any money.        |
|                 | You can't have any money.        |
| Children:       | But we want some money.          |
|                 | We want some money.              |
| Witch:          | I don't have any money.          |
|                 | I don't have any money.          |
| a l 11 1 | Take my cat or take my rat.             |
| Children:       | We don't want a cat,             |
|                 | and we don't want a rat.         |
| Witch:          |   |
|                 | Take my ravens.                         |
